EMS WEEK

Where Emergency Care Begins
May 21-27, 2023

THANK YOU
SONCO EMS HEROES

SONCO Ambulance Honors Staff During National EMS Week

The greatest asset of any emergency medical services (EMS) agency is its people – the EMS practitioners and other personnel who are there for members of the community during their worst or most challenging moments, and who ensure their patients receive high-quality, compassionate, and life-saving care.

SONCO Ambulance employs 23 EMS heroes who make it possible to serve the Ontonagon County & Duncan Twp (Houghton County) areas 24-hours-a-day, 365 days-a-year. In 2022, SONCO was responsible for 610 ambulance responses, this includes both transporting and non-transporting runs within their service area.

Please join us in recognizing and thanking the SONCO Team:

DID YOU HEAR? Under the Wildlife Conservation Order amendment No. 6 of 2023, beavers, muskrats, cottontail rabbits, fox squirrels, gray squirrels, red squirrels, ground squirrels, opossums and weasels can now be killed, or “taken,” by landowners without obtaining a DNR nuisance control permit. Those animals join woodchucks, skunks, raccoons and coyotes which are already on the lethal control list. New order language states that property owners can kill a nuisance animal if its causing damage or is “physically present where it could imminently cause damage.” The definition of property damage is “physical harm to forest products; roads; dams; buildings; orchards; apiaries; livestock; and horticultural or agricultural crops.”

OBITUARIES

Margaret Marie "Sis" Fleming (Tulppo), born Margaret Marie Tulppo on October 7, 1939, Sis graduated from Ewen high school in 1957. She married Robert Floyd Fleming on June 14, 1958. They raised two daughters, Julie and Janice. They moved downstate for work in 1968, but rejoined family and friends in Bruce's in 1973. They enjoyed traveling with their 5th wheel and visited most of the lower 48 states and Alaska. In the early 1990s, they bought George's Bar and moved to L'anse, Michigan. They owned the bar into the early 2000s and made many friends. After their retirement, they spent their winters in Foley, Alabama, and returned to the U.P. for the summer. After Floyd passed in 2011, Sis continued to travel back and forth. In 2017, she was injured in a fall. In November, due to physical disability and advancing dementia, she moved to Marquette County medical care facility. She received excellent care until she passed away on April 8, 2023.

Sis was a caring, hardworking person, a great cook, and a wonderful wife and mother; everyone will miss her. She was preceded in death by her parents, Rayno and Margie Tulppo, her husband, R. Floyd Fleming, her daughter, Julie Flemingsmith, and her brother, Michael Tulppo. She is survived by her daughter Janice Fleming and son-in-law Mark Williams; her sister Alice Johnson; her brother John Tulppo and wife Mary; and her brother Bob Tulppo and wife Barb. Graveside services will be held Friday, May 26, at 1 p.m. at Maple Grove Cemetery south of Bruce Crossing. Luncheon will follow from 2-4 p.m. at Twilly's Bar in Bruce Crossing. The family has chosen McKeivitt-Patrick Funeral Home to honor the memory of Margaret. To express condolences online, go to mckeivittpatrick.com.

Dale E. Sain, 91 of Ewen, MI passed away December 8, 2022, in Wausau, WI surrounded by family. Dale was born June 11, 1931, to the late Richard and Arla Sain in Ewen. He was a lifelong resident of Ewen and graduated from Ewen High School. In 1949 he married the former Lorraine Syria. He served in the Navy Seabees during the Vietnam Era. Dave worked for the Ontonagon County Road Commission and White Pine Copper Mine until his retirement. In retirement, Dale enjoyed going to auctions and yard sales, as well as having his own yard sales. He also enjoyed playing cribbage, watching the Detroit Lions and Detroit Tigers, reading, hunting, fishing and having coffee with his best friend Billy.

He is survived by his sons Brian, Daron and Brad; a brother Roger (Sandy), sister-in-law Ann Sain, and numerous nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his wife Arla, a daughter Cheryl, his parents, a brother Richard; a sister and brother-in-law Georgia and Claude Zilinsky, a nephew Tim Sain and brother-in-law, Carl Joupperi. A funeral service and burial with full military honors will be held on June 3, 2023, at the Methodist Church in Ewen with visitation from 10:00am - 11:00am, the service at 11:00am with Pastor Kay Richter officiating. The burial will follow at the Evergreen Cemetery in Ewen. A luncheon will take place at the Cloverland Senior Center afterwards. Cane Funeral Home-Bruce Crossing Chapel is assisting the family with arrangements.
